Details: **THIS ALBUM 'BRUISE RAW' WAS OFFICIALLY LAUNCHED ON 5TH AUGUST 2008** RECENT INTERVIEW: * So what's with the Band name BRUISED BUT NOT BROKEN? Well, this actually came from a personal experience in my life. A time of reiterating my own convictions. I found it came to mind whilst in deep thought and I figured at that time, that this 'phrase' really suited the style of songs and the lyric sentiment in our songs - so there it is... the BBNB band name was born out of struggle pain - but with the added strength that no matter what we all face in life, we must always realise that tomorrow is another day, and the world is always open to us to bring new possibilities! So we must never 'break' - even though sometimes it feels as though we are 'broken', we must always know deep inside that 'this too will pass' and we must stay strong, keep the faith in ourselves ALIVE and never take any abuse of any sort from anyone. Therefore, yes, we can be bruised - but we must always stay on the path of not being broken. We are stronger than we sometimes give ourselves credit for. Most of our songs reflect the energy of self-power - and remind us that there is no person, place or thing that can ever have any power over us. Yes, I was bruised, as we have all been at one time or another... but damned if I was gonna break! * How and when did you start on your musical journey? As a brother and sister team, Peter I started about 3 years ago. However we have both been in the music industry for most of our lives; I, Gabriella, as a singer (classically trained) and performing mainly Jazz standards in clubs around town for most of my early career and also teaching. My brother Peter, with a lifetime of musical credits to his name, has always performed in bands across the State and has majored in Classical Guitar Violin - Peter has a strong love excels in the Bass Guitar. He is a multi-instrumentalist and is well honored and renowned for his diverse and extraordinary talent. * What kind of music do you like to make? How would you describe your music? Our motto is 'Diversity is the Spice of BBNB'. Eclectic in overall style, we refuse to be boxed in therefore we produce many varying genres, from pop, to funk to modrock, power-ballads, psychedelic and even a little softgoth... whatever suits our mood and as human beings, our moods can change like anyone's!!! So we like to cater for each moment and each mood for all who listen to our songs. * Tell us about this current Album 'BRUISE RAW' BRUISE RAW is our debut Album. All of these particular songs are a reflection of my life and the occurrences in my life at the time of writing, so I guess you can say they are a journal of that period of my life. The Album comprises a very eclectic range of some of our more popular songs to date. BRUISE RAW is mainly upbeat and positive in overall vibe. Lyrically, most of the songs have become widely consumed by a vast audience due to the positive resonance and thought provoking issues surrounding relationship on all levels physical, spiritual and global. Many of the phrases, lines, or full lyrics of some of the songs from BRUISE RAW have been requested by fans for their use on their websites and/or also in poetry or other writings. * Who is your musical inspiration? Our father was a maestro and very well renowned violinist -he paved the way for both of us and our very earliest memories of music are of Glenn Miller, Cole Porter, and Burt Bacharach. Modern influences are wide and vast. From the Beatles through to LZ, Jacques Brel, Muse, JET... well the list goes on on... I guess I must mention Billy Joel, as he has played a major role in my personal musical journey, as has Barry Manilow and my forever personal inspiration, Ted Neeley, widely acclaimed for his performance in the original film Jesus Christ Superstar. Also must make mention of Evanescence, Tom Waits, Kate Bush, Peter Dinklage, Phil Collins, Michael Jackson, Bee Gees, Neil Sedaka... well, you can see it's rather a varied mix of very inspiring artists... however the list still goes on and on! * How do you distinguish yourselves from others? We enjoy producing retro/eclectic style music without the typically expected sound that is marketed today. We like to stay true to our own energy and we have been praised many times for 'bringing real music back'. Our fans/friends enjoy dancing, singing and even crying along with our songs - they can be quite emotionally charged! Our lyrics have been requested by many fans to be posted on their various website or journals, as they feel they can relate very personally with our lyrics and songs. Live performances are always a treat everyone has load of fun... we look forward to more of this in the coming months. * Do you write your own songs? We compose, perform, arrange and produce all our own songs. * What is a day like in the life of a musician? A solitary life at times, as one can get caught in the studio, either writing new material or arranging/producing/mastering songs. Also there is much networking and marketing to be done and many people to liaise with during the course of the day to keep it all moving.. the key is movement and never stagnating - not for a moment. Every single day brings new and exciting opportunities. * Any parting shot? We have a driving passion to continue with our growing success and have come to enjoy dramatic success the past year or so with a fast growing fanclub plus several radio features and live interviews in the USA and Germany. We always love to meet new people who appreciate our music. We would also like to connect with producers and A R people who may like to consider our songs for use in movies, TV, or for other artists to perform via negotiation. We are open to all invitations and all enquiries regarding our songs and we're very excited about our current and future ventures. ***** * Current 'fan reviews' of this album at the time of CDBABY launch; "This alnum is fantastic Gab and Pete !!!
