Afro-Peruvian music, reviving the traditions and exploring the roots. 9 MP3 Songs LATIN: General, WORLD: World Traditions Details: From the Artist We preserve the tradition and the Black folklore of Peru by overcoming multiple challenges and obstacles with the sole support of our artistic and cultural convictions. The following is a combination of the past and present of the Black music of Peru. You will be able to experience and enjoy the traditional as well as the current styles of music in Peru. About the Artist During its seven years of existence "De Rompe y Raja" Cultural Association has maintained a well-known and authentic diffusion of the Coastal folklore of Peru in the North of California, USA. This has been accomplished thanks to the participation of natives and non-native Peruvian musicians and dancers residents in this country. Product Description Why "The Return"? Simply because this material represents the deepest sentiment and perennial nostalgia carried by the Peruvians who live abroad and because it expresses in a musical way the fervent wish to go back to fuse with our country land...with our roots.
