This is the first solo album by DJ Scandaelicious out of OMA, Mississippi. It is his own style - Cornrow Soul. It's laidback on the flow. Coming hard with the 808 bass and beats. Raw and uncut on the whole nine done by himself. 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: DJ Scandaelicious (aka) "El-L", "Magnolia Shawty" and "Tchoupitoula" Base of Operations - OMA, Mississippi (Tower of Power Studio) and Big Bertha Mobile Studio This is my first solo album. I made the beats. I wrote the lyrics and performed the songs. I attempted to mix, master, and edit this album too. My opinion - close but no cigar. But opinions are like a ... you know the rest... because everybody has one or some. But I like it. So did alot of other people. My pockets weren't on slimfast or jenny craig, ya feel me? Better than some who spend too much for the beats. I did it myself. Money saved and well spent. Takes money to make money. Scared money don't win, baby. Nuff said! I've decided to re-release this album for my new fans on this outlet so they can hear how I progressed or regressed. This will let the skeptics know that I don't play with my beats. That's my first love. Droppin' tight beats. The singing and sangin' is for those who want my beats to flow to. But if push comes to shove, I will lay them bars down. It's raw. It's uncut. It's me. As is. No whammys, baby. No whammys. Just grammys. Peace to the nation of one-legged strippers doing a table hop! And all dat. Fer Sho. Later.
