ETA's album "Trilogy" is fresh, exciting and unique with multiple genres including contemporary piano pieces, instrumental jazz cuts and pop vocal songs. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: ETA's album "Trilogy" is fresh, exciting and unique with multiple genres. This instrumental and vocal duo, Ed Fruge and Tony DuPuis, do it all. ETA composes, performs, records, and produces their own music and videos. These two Louisiana native sons combine their pop/jazz/R&B influences to create a musical journey, beginning with the Light Side of Trilogy. Experience the ethereal contemporary piano pieces which transform you into present time...peaceful, meditative and contemplative. Next, the smooth elements of Trilogy's Cool Side elevate the energy level with ETA's melodic instrumental jazz cuts. Rhythmic drums and high tech synthesis dominate this section of the album's sonic trek. The final destination is the Hot Side of Trilogy, featuring the smooth vocals of Fruge and the gruff vocals of DuPuis on their pop/R&B songs. ETA's big movie style music production, soulful singing and positive lyrics, make the Hot Side's radio friendly songs - sure fire hits! Biography: Ed Fruge: Vocals, piano, keyboards. Co-producer/writer of movie soundtracks for "Rocky IV" and "Transformers". Toured as keyboardist/vocalist with the Frank Stallone Band/Little River Band Tour. Written/produced with Michael Sembello (Flashdance), Check Negrón (Three Dog Night), Bobby Kimball (Toto). Tony DuPuis: Vocals, piano, drums. Louisiana Jazz Musician of the Year and Rusty Mayne Jazz Award. Tour dates with Spyra Gyra, Roy Ayers, Muddy Waters and Stanley Jordan. Endorsements: Sonor, Paiste and Pro-Mark.
