Garrett Gue, hailing from Bozeman, has been passionately exploring music ever since his uncle gave him a beat-up guitar when he was eight years old. Today, he can typically be found in the background playing a bass guitar at venues all over the Northwest with various Montana or Seattle-based acts, including Mark Wagner. His expression, however, has recently come to fruition in a new, exciting form. Often times reserved, Garrett shares a moment of honesty regarding his faith, relationships, and daydreams in his debut release, 'Tall Drink o Water'. The title of his album is drawn from the lyrics of one of its songs, 'Sunny Days', and refers to his tendency to be an inattentive dreamer of sorts. Take a moment to let your mind wander as you soak up the unique sound of Garrett Gues Tall Drink o Water. Co-produced and recorded by Chris Cunningham of the folk-duo Storyhill.
