Eroica Classical Recordings presents. "An Education in the greatest classical music ever performed." In alliance with Musically speaking CDs. Conducted, and with commentary, by the world renowned trumpeter and conductor of the Seattle Symphony. 17 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Orchestral, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: About This CD The music CD includes Haydn's Cello Concerto in D Major, Symphony No. 103 "Drumroll," and Trumpet Concerto in E-flat Major. The second CD in the package features Maestro Gerard Schwarz presenting a Conductor's explanation of the music, life and times of Franz Joseph Haydn. The package also includes two 16-page booklets that illuminate the life of the composer and guide you through these collector's edition musical performances. Haydn's Cello Concerto in D Major follows the usual form of Classical-period concertos: three movements arranged in a fast-slow-fast pattern. In writing for solo cello as the concerto's featured instrument, Haydn exploited the instrument's wide range and its capacity for both lyrical expression and athletic passagework.
