Headphone music: This album is best experienced through a quality pair of headphones. This is Jeremy Bowen's second release as a solo artist, following his debut recording, "Nothing to Say." More than just a breath of fresh air in an angry, cluttered, and plagiaristic musical environment, this self titled album is a very personal statement from the artist, both as a performer and as a composer. The result of this effort is a work of inescapable creativity, filled with sincere, passionate, and thoughtful performances. This mix of contemporary, folk, classical, electronic, and jazz influences have created a cd with immense appeal to listeners from all genres. Each track presents its own unique style, all of which combine to form a very diverse and intense listening experience. - Akash Shivashankara (all instruments played by Jeremy except where noted) LIGHT DESCENDING - computer-generated sine waves Electronic piece composed of the purest form of sound WALK WITH ME (IT'S A SUNNY DAY) - acoustic guitar, piano, electric bass, drum machine A pleasant groove TWELVE - multiple tracks of piano, electric bass, drums (kevin meyer) A rather mathematical piece, but still interesting if you don't know why LAST TIME, AGAIN - vocals (with words), acoustic guitar, cello You'll probably think this is about a girl...I guess it could be NOTHING BETWEEN ME AND BIG, SILENT SKY - piano Self explanatory, I think. OTIS - trumpet (darrell brown), piano (dale belnap), electric bass, drums (kevin meyer) Straight up jazz/funk jam UNTITLED - vocals (no words), piano, acoustic bass, drums (kevin meyer) No words here, either... SLIDE - acoustic slide guitar, acoustic bass Mmm hmm...yeah...sometimes you just have to let loose END SONG - piano, electric guitar, electric bass, drum machine Closing statement APRIL 4, 2002 8:36 PM MST - a host of characters making music...
