not-entirely-professional-but-pretty-good studio in Bedford, UK, these songs slowly came about and took shape, and I am very proud of them I am a singer songwriter flying the alt-country-folk-guitar-pop flag (you know the one) from Luton, Bedfordshire, UK. I write finely-crafted soaring choruses, foot-tapping infectious guitar pop and i fully endorse the use of theremins and horns. Searing melodies, harmonies and rousing choruses combine with acoustic and piano based charm resulting in a Harvest Moon. Take a pinch of Ryan Adams, Micah P Hinson, Wilco, Bob Dylan, Nick Cave and Josh Ritter and voila, you have Kid Charlemagne.
