Toronto Hip-Hop that doesn't suck; a collection of 19 urban tracks programmed, produced, performed and written by Link, who is now heading up his own Canadian based label 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: "15 Minutes" is a collection of 19 urban tracks programmed, produced, performed and written by Link, who is now heading up his own Canadian based label "Infektious Records". (infektious.com). These are songs that can be classified as 'tunes to cruise to. "I know a lot of dudes with killer systems in their cars, man. Every time I wrapped up a track I would bring it to them. Their response: More bass, more bass, and you guessed it, MORE BASS!" Every song has a unique upbeat sound, making use of some of the newest drum kits, synthesizers and sub samples as well as very nice array of ear candy. Also included on the album are comedic commercials and skits, tracks containing score worthy endings, instrumentals and even a dark Drum 'n' Bass vocal track. It's diverse to say the least. His unique voice and aggressive lyrical style combined with his hard hitting instrumentals, ambition, determination and perseverance brings an understanding that if you want it bad enough you can get. It can be done from your basement. Proof of that would be that his label. He has started seeking 15 Canadian urban artists to produce a compilation CD due to be released in June of this year (2004) by his label Infektious.
