Song: Sunday Mornings Fan Comments: "Old Blue Eyes is still with us and sounding better than ever!" A.N Oct 20, 2006 Those of you who truly love music, - I mean songs with timeless lyrics and classic melodies, Manny Lagods new CD Something is not to be missed. Ive known Manny personally for years now and his voice is like fine wine. It gets better with age! Hes a singers singer. When you hear that voice your listening to all the greats, The cool Sinatra phrasing, Nat King Coles dynamic pitch, and the smooth baritone of my all time favorite, Matt Monro. For you the audience it will be a chance to really identify, appreciate and applaud the talents of one of Hawaiis all time best, Manny LaGod. See Him! (Cris Estrada /Hawaii) Judy S. July 7, 2006 Stunningly beautiful album! This is one that will be playing both at home and in my office regularly! Beautiful voice, incredible production values - a must-have CD. Just put it on, pour the wine and relax.... Thank you for a lovely listening experience! Judy Richard D. May 9, 2006 Nice job Manny! It's been a joy watching, (and hearing) you create this CD!! I look forward to more music with you - you are a joy to work with. (Do your fans know you play Stevie Wonder Bass parts too, and that you play Rock 'n Roll with the best of them?) I look forward to owning the finished copy! Sean J. April 23, 2006 Fantastic Manny! Never knew you had that much talent. Genre: Jazz, Easy Listening. Manny LaGod played clarinet at Farrington H.S. band sitting next to the future ex-governor of Hawaii, Ben Cayetano! Manny also played Alto Sax in a 16 piece dance band called "The Blue Clefs" Manny was also a member of the now disbanded popular Hawaiian group "The Aliis!" The Aliis were the back up group for Don Ho of "Tiny Bubbles" fame in the mid-60's. Manny Played bass and vocalized with the other members of the Aliis with rich background harmonies for Don Ho. The Aliis were formed specially to represent Hawaii and it's music as an independant group in the Air Force stationed at Bolling AFB, Washington D.C. and entertained at Air force facilities across the continental United States and Bermuda! The Aliis were also signed to the "Reprise" label with producer "Sonny Burke" Manny has many spot solo's on several of the Aliis albums! As a composer and arranger, Manny finally decided to record his own full length CD recently released July 2006. Manny has appeared with his own show in Las Vegas and Southern California. One of the most exciting event was performing for Englebert Humperdink at his private birthday party in Las vegas! My recording of the song "something" written by George Harrison of the famous "Beatles" showcases my voice and a little twist for my love of "Jazz and Swing!" Collaborating with Larry Cansler, past arranger/writer with Kenny Rogers and the First Edition, Larry arranged one of the very first songs I had ever written called Sunday Mornings about hang gliding from the cliffs off Makapu Beach on the east side of Oahu. Yes, it was on a Sunday morning! Beautiful Hawaii was written after being away from the Islands for an extended period of time and being home sick! Aloha I Love you the last song on this CD was written after family members from Los Angeles visited and stayed a month with me in Hawaii. This song describes the things we did and the deep feelings I had for my relatives in Los Angeles. It was also my farewell song as I was planning to move to Los Angeles to pursue my musical career. Bright Sunny Day is the first song I had ever composed and arranged entirely. This was written by me for Englebert Humperdink after I had performed in a private birthday party for him in Las Vegas early 1980. Credits: Keyboards/Synth: Sam Sorensen, Bob Furgo Bass: Manny LaGod, Scott Kimber Drums: Dave Raven, Frank Ventri Guitar: Ron DePalma, Chris Smith Sax Flute: Charles Green Percussion: Manny LaGod, Dave Raven Female Background Vocals: Janelle Sadler, Elaine Gibbs (Both have toured with Natali Cole) Kiddies Voices: Amy Rodgers, Kailey Lauren "Staple sisters" Kyle Staple, Gwen Furnas, Cassie Swartz.
