Rain King has performed on the same stage with Mos Def, Kid Capri, Method Man, Red Man, to name a few. With his thunderous, raspy vocals and animated performance, this artist gives the fans what they have been missing since the untimely demise of Notorious B.I.G. and 2Pac. Now with one EP release under his belt entitled "Encore", which released last year, Rain King is ready to step onto a much larger plateau. Be on the look out for Rain King, because this kid is definitely a star. DAYRON R&B soloist born and raised up in Syracuse, New York. With a soothing , melodic voice, Dayron has captivated audiences around upstate New York. The women love his "pretty boy" image and the fellas respect his "thug" appeal. With a hot single entitled "Honestly"; already receiving heavy rotation in Syracuse and in other locations around upstate New York, Dayron has what it takes to be a favorite amongst the entertainment community. RUFFIANZ Hip Hop group, all natives of Syracuse, New York. The Ruffianz is the sickest combination of emcees representing every side of town up in the 'Cuse. Rain King, Queen Momma La, Davine La'Meek and B.I. (Bruce Illest) all make up the quartet that we at Whatever You Want call "the Wu-Tang of 2002, minus the kung-fu", NO JOKE! The name of the group speaks for itself. Big hooks, combined with "in the gutter" production and vocals make the Ruffianz a sure underground, as well as a commercial hit. Also receiving heavy rotation in Syracuse, as well as other areas, these cats only have one thing to say; "We want what's rightfully ours...everything...nothing less. KADIA-S;Aacute;NG R&B soloist from Harlem and now located in Syracuse, New York. Remarkable writing and vocal ability is what makes her special.
