Coming out the same city as his label, Bootleg music inc. Bibb county Alabama. Some of his inspirations are: Eminem, Ludacris, 2 pac, Dr stank. His favorite school subjects are going home. It all started out in the hospital when my moms water broke 5 hours before actual delivery. I bounced around for a long time hittin my head against bone a whatnot. Finally i was born(to some doctors surprise i was still alive)with a big gnotted head. From then on my mom knew i would be a very special boy. I lived most of my child hood in springville ala.then moved to a small town called Brent at age 8 or 9. I rapped my first rap on stage at haysop church in the third grade, i guess i was good people cheered and stuff. I started pursuing rap seriously in the 8th grade since no really liked me in school it gave me more time to horn in my skills. all i did in school was write raps and then i would go straight home and write more raps, as time went on i got better and better until i found my own style in which many say i put them in the mind of eminem. I' ve done regional shows for teens and pull off second which is pretty good in a singing competition. Basically i want to be the first to put alabama on the map in this rap game in a major way. So be on the lookout for anything from the Bootleg music family because it will be bangin !!!
