

Songs (mp3 Album)

DOWNLOAD HERE

"Songs" features 31 original songs for solo voice piano by composer Nick Peros, works characterized by melodic beauty and harmonic invention, and setting texts by Emily Bronte, Emily Dickinson and others; 31 MP3 Songs in this album (54:28) ! Related styles: CLASSICAL: Vocal Music, CLASSICAL: Art songs

Details: Nick Peros is an acclaimed classical composer with almost 200 works in his catalogue composed across a wide variety of genres, including solo instrumental, chamber, orchestral, choral and vocal works. His music has been performed across Canada, the US Europe, and his music concerts have been recorded by CBC Radio for national broadcast. He has released two CDs of his music "Motets", featuring 20 a cappella choral compositions; "Songs", featuring 31 songs for voice piano. Both of these CDs have received wide critical and audience acclaim, as well as receiving excellent support on classical radio across North America. His music has also been recorded by Canadian pianist Linda Shumas, who featured five of Nicks Poemes for Solo Piano on her CD "Paradise Reborn". In 1992, Nick Peros project "Isumataq", a collaboration with Canadian painter Ken Kirkby, was recognized by the Government of Canada at a special closed ceremony in the House of Commons/Ottawa, attended by the Members of the House, the Party Leaders, the Speaker of the House and the Prime Minister, as a project important for Canada and for Canadian culture. Nick Peros composed the large-scale a capella choral work "Prayer of Consolation" to commemorate the First Anniversary of 9-11. The work is a setting of Scripture that addresses the events of 9-11 and received its World Premiere on September 10, 2002 at Washington National Cathedral, Washington DC as a key component in the official US state commemorations of 9-11. "Prayer of Consolation" received worldwide media attention from press, radio TV. The CD "Songs", by Nick Peros, features 31 songs for solo voice and piano and are works characterized by a beautiful melodic sense as well as rich harmonic invention. The texts feature poetry by Emily Bronte, Emily

Dickinson, A. E. Housman, William Blake, Wordsworth, et al - some of the Bronte songs are the first time that those texts have been set to music. As a producer, Nick Peros has also been awarded a Platinum Award for his CD "O Canada- A Canadian Celebration" (Certified Platinum), while three other CDs "Home for Christmas", "Homegrown" and "Stories from Home" have all achieved Gold Record status.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)