Thomascows version Before the Next Teardrop Falls is an American country and pop1974 song written by Vivian Keith and Ben Peters, and most famously recorded by Freddy Fender. The song was written in the late 1960s and had been recorded more than two dozen times. At best, the song had achieved modest success by other performers. In 1974, record producer Huey Meaux approached Fender about overdubbing vocals for an instrumental track. Fender agreed, performing the song bi-lingual style singing the first verse in English, then repeating the verse in Spanish. The rest is history, Enjoy
