Her family is full of musicians, missionaries, pastors, revere leaders and sold-out Christians serving God. Her father is Associate Pastor and revere leader at Calvary Chapel of Corona. She plays churches and coffee houses sometimes solo (with her acoustic guitar) and sometimes backed by a full band that includes her two brothers; Josh (keyboards/piano) Jon (on drums) an accomplished bass player named Rob Salter and guitarist Sid Avila. In 2000, AmberJane went on a missions tour of the Philippines as part of The Joy Band, a band that also included the AmberJane band as well as her sister Aimee, Nicole Parise, and occasionally her mom and dad Dave and Beverly Rios. This tour was a benefit for the Charlie's Lunch ministry. AmberJane has written some of the most dear echt revere songs you'll ever hear.
