Bassistrys self-titled Jazz Groove debut album was released in 1996 through German Indie label, Okapi Records. It featured pianist Dave Maric (Steve Martland Band, Katia Maria Labeque), Mervin Samuels (Saxophones), Cynthia Simmons (Voice), Philippe dAmonville (drums) and Andrew Tween (Percussion). Bassistry performed in Germany and in the UK. In Time, was released in 2005. Featuring some of Londons most exciting young players, Duncan Mckay, (Incognito, Primal Scream, etc), Sam Agard (Corinne Bailey Rae), Alex Bennett (Corinne Bailey Rae), Jamie Trowell, Jules Faife (Netsayi) and two fantastically gifted vocalists, Katy Seath and Nicola Bull. In Time was released through HR Records and was reviewed by Jazzwise as like Incognito and Brand New Heavies but a little grittier. In these days of hackney formulaic radio friendly music this bands raw musicality is refreshing. : Currently, promoting our new single, Mad About U. Bassistry will be releasing 2 new of tracks over the coming month. Produced with Cassell the beatmaker. (Akala, Plan B and Keziah Jones). Cassell and I will be back in the studio laying down tracks for the Bassistry EP due out in early 2009. The working title is What The Hell Do You Call This?
