Details: Born only a year apart in the same town and even in the same hospital, Ann and David were in their 40's before they met. They found there was much they had in common, including an appreciation for the musical influences of the late 60's and 70's. This love for music has played a large part in shaping them both individually and now as a married couple. Coming from different musical backgrounds (acoustic solo, choral music, Christian band, family harmonies, bar band) they seek to blend their voices and music to bring songs to people that warm the soul and bring back pleasant memories . . . Songs for the Heart. Their original music is a blend of these different influences and styles. One is likely to hear a very upbeat rock song followed by a contemplative gentle song. It is difficult to truly put this music into a category as the song styles are quite varied within the CD. The common threads through the music are love, faith, and family.
