power punk/rock, x meets the foo fighters 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: 90's Rock, POP: New Wave Details: Three piece groups can be sonically and vocally two dimensional, but Drag, who boast both iconic ex-Delphines bassist Dominique Davalos fallen-angel inflections and guitarist Kevin Darish falsetto-crowned, finely textured timbre, cover great swaths of emotional territory despite the limited crew. While Drag are a convincing visual presence, Darish's late night Los Feliz suave and Davalos post make over riot grrl allure are but window dressing for their mega mart of tunes and taste, interpolating turn of the 90's post punk influences with sufficient melodic adventure and songwriting identity to escape stict retro shackles. Influences of Bauhaus, Siouxsie Sioux, with the sensibilities of Cheap Trick line the writings of their songs.
