

Mp3 Gregory Paul Aubuchon - A Muse

DOWNLOAD HERE

A compelling blend of rock, jazz, blues, and latin themes, sometimes soft, sometimes hard, but always pleasing to the discerning ear. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Instrumental Rock, BLUES: Jazzy Blues Details: A muse was recorded, mixed, and mastered in Webster Groves, Missouri. All songs were composed, produced, and performed by Greg Aubuchon; ditto for all instrumental performances, except percussion. Tracking, mixing, and mastering engineer: Greg Aubuchon. Instruments and gear lineup: 1999 Fender Stratocaster; 2001 Paul Reed Smith CE22; Fender bass; Casio keyboard and synth; Guild DCE1 and Cort Earth 900 acoustic guitars; Neuman KM184 and Shure SM 57 mics; POD Pro and Boss GT3 direct recording preamps; Rivera M60 and Reverend Hellhound guitar amps; Lexicon effects; Palmer ADIG-LB speaker emulator; Boss DR-770 drum machine; Roland VS 1880 digital audio workstation; Event 20/20 studio monitors. Brief bio: Greg Aubuchon is an attorney, economist, arbitrator, and an adjunct professor who teaches law and economics at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Greg studied music theory prior to college, but declined to pursue a music degree at the college level. After earning his law degree from Vanderbilt University, Greg practiced law first in Memphis, Tennessee, then later in St. Louis, Missouri. He is now the Director of the Labor Education Market Analysis at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Please feel free to email me with questions or comments regarding a muse. I hope you enjoy the music. Best regards! Gregory Paul Aubuchon-Summer 2003

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: