Acoustic short stories about girls, ghosts, graveyards, going home, and going on. 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Emo Show all album songs: Jane Misanthrope Songs Details: About The Artist James Germain started performing as a solo artist during college in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He eventually recorded a two track demo, entitled Two Songs For Two Wrongs, and played his first show with Lucero, one of his favorite bands. He continued performing for four years while he completed a B.A. in English, opening for many of his other favorite artists, such as The Honorary Title, The Matson Jones, and Kind of Like Spitting. After graduating, James spent the next six months recording his debut album, Jane Misanthrope, featuring vocalist: Heather Collins, drummer: Chris Combs, and violinist: Andrea Asprelli. He later moved to Seattle, Washington, where he currently resides. Fan Feedback "James makes the sort of music you'd stay up 'till 3 am listening to, wishing the lyrics were about you, or knowing you've felt that way before - only he just seems to say it better." "One of my fondest memories of college is listening to James play. His poetic lyrics and truly original tunes bring tears to my eyes and make me laugh all at the same time. James really is my favorite musician." "The depth of thought and insight in James' music exposes all the shallow, repeat, 'nothing new under the sun' artists - his music is of such a high caliber that it makes me uncomfortable to support artists that are so obviously dispassionate and lazy."
