Funk/Synthpop 6 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, POP: New Wave Details: Lek Fonq is a 5 piece band that consists of David Ciura as lead singer, Olivier Fabre on Guitar, Joe Tomarchio on keys backing vocals, KC on bass and Andy Cook on drums. Lek Fonq perform their own original music which is a mix of 80s funk and synth pop influences. David had spent several years producing his own music for the dance scene. He has successfully released music for compilation albums in both America and Europe. Olivier originally from France has worked with bands in both France and London while Joe has been a keyboard player since an early age and spent almost 10 year in musical theatre and choral groups. Joe is currently also a singer with Sydney's unique vocal group Polyphony. Once the 3 initial members got together they started scouting and auditioning for the remaining members to complete Lek Fonq. An enthusiastic Andy Cook stepped up as the drummer. Andy's other interests include swing dancing for which he has just completed a national tour with Sugartime, in a Burlesque enticed show. KC plays the funky bass. Together Lek Fonq perform a number of gigs in the Sydney scene including regular gigs at the Ambercrombie Hotel in Broadway.
