He started his professional career with Seattle Opera in 1996, where he made his debut with the role of "Parpignol" in the opera La Boheme. Since then, his career has taken off in many directions; - He recorded a jingle for Hershey's "Kissables" that is being played nationwide in Mexico and Latin America. - He was asked to sing before a world wide audience of 200 million,during a championship fight with Oscar de la Hoya at the Mandalay bay Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. - He was invited to sing for the first lady of Guatemala - He was invited to sing for Nevada's Governor Mr. Kenny Guinn at the Governor's Mansion. - He has performed during special events for the Mexican and German consulates in Las Vegas. Mr. Varela keeps a busy schedule of concerts and recitals during most of the year. Mr. Varela's CD combines a great mix of opera arias, contemporary and old-style italian songs and some traditional Spanish balads. This special mix is interesting to the ear and insipring to the soul. Mr. Varela called this album "Trilogia" for several reasons; Music has no boundaries, it belongs to no one and it is the only true universal language.
