Joni meets Aimee Mann with a splash of Sheryl Crow. Explores her art in this free and eclectic mix of 10 self-penned songs plus acoustic renderings of two of Neil Youngs legendary songs. Art for your ears. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Adult Alternative Pop/Rock Details: What if Joni Mitchell got together with Leonard Cohen for a writing session at the coffeehouse where Counting Crows and Neil Young were playing, Jan Krist was singing, Tori Fionna were pouting, Over The Rhine Aimee Mann opened, and Santana stopped by to play some smokin' guitar ...yeah, it sounds something like that. Marianne is a touring singer-songwriter making music from the inside out deeply immersed in living out her dreams. She travels the coffeehouse and house concert circuit where her laid-back introspective style is a perfect soundtrack for the thoughtful listener. A lyricist with the heart of a poet, her writing style embraces allegory and lush imagery set to post modern art alt folk/pop/rock. Pear In The Pink Thing (2007) is the sixth release from this artist who grows closer to who she really wants to be with each new project. In *Pear In The Pink Thing (*a metaphor for a mystery) Marianne explores her art in this free and eclectic expression of 10 self-penned songs plus acoustic renderings of two of Neil Youngs legendary songs. Come. Listen. ...art for your ears...
