Rock and roll plus dinosaurs equals roaring beasts singing along with catchy pop songs- yeah. 11 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Educational Details: LIL' DINOSOUNDS The long-anticipated second Dinosounds CD, Lil' Dinosounds, is finally released by singing paleontologist Ron Schmidtling. Ron performed these songs for audiences in early 2008, to great success. "Fussy Baby Triceratops" has been the favorite by far. Called the Dino-guy, Ron has been performing for kids since 2000, and to have these songs completed is a great triumph for him. Ron remarked, "It's great to play exclusive dinosaur songs for kids, and these are designed specifically for 2nd graders. Teachers, this one's for you! It'll keep your kids motivated and energized to learn more about fossils." After the original Dinosounds CD reached a general audience with the history of all life on earth, Lil' Dinosounds is directed specifically at a target audience- 7 year-olds. "I also added a lot of new dinosaur noises, including Triceratops, Lambeosaurus, and Baryonyx. It's great to see kids trying to mimic the noises." Dino-guy said. People who are interested in "Weird Al" Yankovic Jack Johnson should consider this download.
