Pop Funk Rock Jazz 7 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Saturns Day blends the all-important elements of rock, funk, jazz, and soul with a dash of pop to populate your musical mind with fresh new songs. Listen and believe... James Tebockhorst on Bass Solid groove, pounding rhythms, melodic infusions, and sonic madness make up the rhythm section. James uses Ampeg heads, Carvin cabinets, and plays Warwick and Carvin basses Shannon Bates on Sax Her musical expression reflects her fascination with the extraordinary details in ordinary things. Earned her bachelor's degree in Music Composition. Has Played sax and flute for Saturns Day, Riboflavin', the Moonlight Serenade Orchestra, and 3rd Track. She also plays solo sax Improvisations for the Poetry and Art shows at the San Diego Art Institute. Dan Mueller on Drums A propensity for unusual arrangements, helps infuse a mad mans touch of smoothness and oddity. Influences range from everything to anything. Spent his youth touring the SF Bay Area with metal act CONFUSION, experimental rock act IMPS, and eclectically acoustic act THE RABDAU UNIT among many other odds and ends while studying Jazz and Latin rhythms. His focus then switched to touring the California Jazz Festival circuit with the TOOT SWEET JAZZ BAND. Plays D'Amico drums and Zildjian cymbals. Brian Deprimio on Guitar Infuses the groove on rhythm guitar and sores with soulful leads, complementing both the complex and the delicate works of Saturns Day. His musical endeavors include recording, gigging, writing, and/or collaboration with the following artists/bands: Philadelphia-based alternative rock songwriter, Craig Bancoff; LA-based hard rock act, Carri-On: and the rock band, Reflex. Teaches guitar and bass professionally. Plays Fender guitars and amplifiers. Jaleh Eva, Vocals Has a strong background of R&B and is a powerhouse of soul. Her melodic shadings are perfectly matched with her explosions of musical expression.
