Zone 5th album. A unique and weird mixture of experimental electronic music, at once delicate and then brutal. Industrial meets neo-classical. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (47:56) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Industrial, AVANT GARDE: Electronic Avant-Garde People who are interested in John Cage The Residents Throbbing Gristle should consider this download. Details: Zone's latest (2005) CD 'Alien Nature' is their most organic album by far, in the sense that it has developed from a central idea of a piece, eschewing artificiality of approach in favour of an electronic world with real blood in its veins and a musical heartbeat that, though erratic, is human and strong. What Zone is doing here is entertaining, involving and elusive, deconstructing their legacy whilst foreshadowing another. It's hard to describe, but meta-industrial meets neo-classical comes close, the sound of the machine age making peace with itself and rediscovering mystery. A revolution of the soul of this very unusual musical presence takes place that, more than even before, has resulted in a work of not just power but also beauty.
