Stephen Heller wrote many works for piano during his compositional life. Erlkñig is a work based upon Schuberts lied known by the names of Erlkñig and Roi des Aulnes , which is, in turn, based on Goethes poem about a child attacked by a supernatural force the Erlkñig. The work, described by Heller as a Ballade, explores the story through the use of several characters, and contains excitement, mystery and suspense as the story is told through Hellers passionate melodies and ability to write emotively for the piano.
