Wordhunger was formed in 1999 as an Internet collaborative group for surreal and fantastical fiction and it had (and still has) an unquenchable thirst for the strange world of words, where words live and breathe and sound succulently and even mean something within the context of the stories we forged with the help of such words. It's hard to describe the process unpretentiously. That's because none of the Wordhunger collective have ever been unpretentious. All the writers here present speak with one voice. Double Dragon Publishing will bringing to the reader an edition of WordHunger each year as it is released.
