The sweetest, catchiest, strangest super-pop music you've ever heard--this is the music they'll play for you in heaven after you die winning the lottery. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: CoffeeBird is low-fi, high-energy pop album--a funny, catchy, quirky and sweet compendium of tunes about love, faith, doubt and desperation. It's heavy on the trumpets and strings and piano; there's only one lousy guitar solo. It will make you feel very good. Anne Kadet is a proud former keyboard player/singer for NYC power-pop band The Anabolics, and previously played in the now-defunct carnival-rock act Full Throttle Aristotle. She also composed the score for soon-to-be released feature film, Stanley Cuba. She lives in Cobble Hill, Brooklyn with her dog, Louis Hiegel.
