Bookworm Brown kicks razor sharp lyrics over hammerhead beats and mixes philosophy, poetry, literature, theology and rhyme. 9 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Bookworm Brown is the future of Los Angeles Hip Hop. With a style best described as apocalyptic, his razor sharp lyricism excites the mind of the listener as it cuts through the mediocrity of most modern day rap. Bookworm's music is an urgent and clarion call to resist, hate, heal, love, build, destroy and rebuild. And yes, it's ok to shake that ass in the process. Although Bookworm has proven himself a victorious and vicious freestyler in both organized and street battles, it's his use of the written word that captivates the soul of the listener. His song, "Run!", based on the Luis Rodriguez novel, Always Running, was utilized as promotional material for the national Artist For Literacy Campaign. In addition to his songwriting skills, Bookworm has written over 180 television shows for the Mun2 network, won regional poetry contests and has published essays and articles for national publications. With a Master's degree in the Philosophy of Religion and Ethics and several years of teaching under his belt, Bookworm has been invited to perform and offer motivational messages at high schools, churches, youth prisons, retreats and charitable events. Fueled by a commitment to excellence and a zeal for all things fresh, Bookworm Brown has also pioneered Hip Hop street performances across China, Korea, Japan, Mexico and Guatemala. With rhymes driven by unique experiences, a passion for twiddling with language and a personality poised for success, Bookworm Brown is making it happen.
