Delaney's personal metamorphosis through struggles and triumphs brought to fruition the creation of "FREEDOM". Born and raised in Manitoba, Canada. Delaney Rose was only six years old when her life long love affair with the dance of music began. She had been exploring in her parent's attic and found a dusty old guitar with only four strings. That old guitar now has six strings and no longer collects dust. Delaney developed a love for music and performed at many local fairs and events. One evening while playing she had an epiphany, from that moment on Delaney knew that her love of playing would be her life. That very next night, a near fatal car accident found her clinging to her every breath. Delaney emerged with a sound that is hypnotic, breezy, and intensely personal. Evoking a familiarity and a connection with her listeners that is imploring them to search within and touch their soul. Her lyrics are hopeful, positive, and sincere, emphasizing that no one is ever alone. Delaney Rose has become a genuine artist forever following her highest path to bring messages of hope and love through her unique songwriting and strong live performances. Delaney Rose is a rising star that is lighting the heart and soul of all who hear her.
