"A classically trained pianist, DeBiase echoes the powerful emotional energy of Tori Amos and recalls the hypnotic beauty of early Sarah McLachlan." 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: THRIFT STORE RECORDS RECORDING ARTIST PERFORMING INDIEGRRL "Liz DeBiase is a talented singer-songwriter whose music is both spirited and complex. Propelled by her mesmerizing piano riffs, DeBiase's sweet, lilting voice carries these songs to a higher plane. Sensual, sweet, dark, haunting, melancholy...take your pick DeBiase covers all of the bases on Loop and more. If your looking for one of Boston's finest up and coming songstresses, look no further, Liz DeBiase has arrived." Doug Sloane(Metronome Magazine-Boston, MA A native of Cleveland, Liz is now resides in Boston. In addition to local shows in Cambridge and Boston, the band is touring regionally and plans to extend dates to the West. Band members include the Multi-talented Hugh McGowan on guitars, the Dynamic Mike Ahrens on drums and the Angelic Rosalie Luongo on Backing vocals. The band adds lush accompaniments to every performance. "Loop(Thrift Store Records), DeBiase's latest offering, is a sweet record of consistently powerful and catchy songs. With "Loop", Liz DeBiase has written an intelligent and emotional disc of nocturnes. Her idols (Tori Amos, Peter Gabriel) are obvious at times, but she is anything but a clone. Rather, she is a summation of her influences and own experiences, and is fully capable of reflecting this fact with ease. If there were a few mainstream artists with the talent of DeBiase, then perhaps radio and MTV could once again become enjoyable." Justin Waters(muen.net) "A classically trained pianist, DeBiase echoes the powerful emotional energy of Tori Amos and recalls the hypnotic beauty of early Sarah McLachlan. Her breezy, honest and accessible lyrics speak to the collective soul, and promise to bring fans of all music genres together in a truly kismet way". Kate Jackson (contributing editor for American Magazine)
