Contact: Anji Milanovic, (714) 953-1328 anjimilanovic@hotmail.com "Good Times" from Luis Jahn Slated for April Release (Chicago, IL) - Buenos Tiempos, Argentine singer Luis Jahn's new CD on Del Sur Music, is a follow up to the successful 2003 release of Compromiso. A CD release party is slated to take place at the Old Town School of Folk Music on Wednesday, April 14 at 8:30 pm. Written, arranged and produced by singer-guitarist Luis Jahn, Buenos Tiempos remains faithful to his signature heartfelt lyrics and melodic arrangements. The Latin grooves on Buenos Tiempos lay the tracks for a musical journey that is both familiar and innovative. From the bohemian jazz of "Cafe en "El Ultimo Beso" to the witty wordplay on the experimental "Tinta versus Tinto" featuring Chicago poet Lito Barraza, Jahn's sound is smooth and more sophisticated than ever. He is joined by Mexican trovador Alfonso Maya on "Tlatelolco", an ode to those killed by the government in 1968. Instruments like the charango and the pezuña give songs like "La Mala Suerte" and "El Chambeador" an Andean flavor. "Good Times stems from the idea that now more than ever it's a good time to find what's been lost, finish what's been started and to dream the impossible. Music has always been my path to achieve this," explains Jahn. "On this record both musically and lyrically I explored much more than I have in the past." About the Singer Living in Chicago since 1989, Jahn has performed in various locals, including the Chicago World Music Festival 2003, Hothouse, Old Town School of Folk Music, and La Decima Musa. He has also played in several universities such as the University of Illinois at Chicago, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Triton College and Lake Forest College. He has also played in South America for various fundraisers and events and was invited by to share the stage in Buenos Aires with Leon Gieco and Mercedes Sosa. ### En otro tiempo Luis Jahn regresa con nueva produccion Es de los nuestros, de nuestra ciudad. No slo por ello hay que apoyarlo sino porque hace msica con objetivo y con sentido, como ya lo prob con su anterior produccion "Compromiso". Es de los nuestros, de nuestra ciudad. No slo por ello hay que apoyarlo sino porque hace msica con objetivo y con sentido, como ya lo prob con su anterior produccion "Compromiso". Esta vez trae una compilacin de temas que presentar en sociedad el 14 de abril desde las 8 y 30 de la noche en el Old Town School of Folk Music (4544 N. Lincoln Ave. - 773.728.6000), siendo un concierto gratuito. "Hoy ms que nunca es un buen tiempo para encontrar lo perdido, terminar lo empezado y soar lo imposible... un buen tiempo para reflexionar sobre lo que significa el valor humano. La msica es mi camino", dice en su presentacin el cantante, compositor y letrista radicado en Chicago desde 1989. Su nueva produccion bajo el sello "Del Sur Music" trae temas como "Tinta y vino" el corte promocional, "La mala suerte", "El chambeador", "El misterio de la vida", "Buenos tiempos" y "Tlatelolco" entre otros. Todos con letra y msica de su inspiracin. "Grabar este disco ha sido uno de mis proyectos ms difciles pero a la vez ms divertidos, ya que compart momentos inolvidables con mucha gente maravillosa", agrega emocionado y esperanzado que esta produccion sea del agrado del pblico.
