Sublime vocals, stunning string arrangements, Freefall is lush and ornate, a tapestry of beauty, passion and rhythm, drawing on the distinct musical worlds of Middle Eastern, Jazz, Quirky Pop and Trance music to create what is essentially a highly original 6 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: "One of Australia's true innovative talents" Allan Zavod, ex Frank Zappa Band. "Noemi's blend of soft grooves and spiritual themes are already attracting a strong following..." Michael Duffy, The Advertiser Adelaide. Freefall is a long awaited musical debut. It reveals Noemi Liba as a sophisticated and daring song writer/performer whose compositions are sumptuous and intelligent, visceral and cerebral. Her lyrics are an honest, direct poetry, encased in lush musical soundscape; visual, sensual and highly evocative. Inspired by the expansive worlds of Middle Eastern, Jazz, String Quartet Chamber Music and Trance, Noemi has created a new musical space. Vocally, Noemi manoeuvres effortlessly between husky and pure sounds, between the spoken and soaring melodically, exploring dynamic possibilities of voice. Noemi has enchanted audiences in six languages, across Australia, in the U.S.A and the Middle East. Her performances solo and in various contemporary Middle Eastern music ensembles such as Kesh and Hadassah have established her reputation as an intimate and uniquely passionate live artist, who has been equally at home performing at the Melbourne Concert Hall, as a guest soloist at the Vodafone Arena, at music festivals and intimate clubs. Though she has been writing and performing music since 1992, Noemi completed an Advanced Diploma of Music Performance (Jazz and Contemporary) at NMIT, Melbourne in 2002 and has since studied with Yair Dalal (Israel), Allan Zavod, Christine Sullivan and Michelle Nicole. In addition to her music pursuits, Noemi has a double degree in Literature and Philosophy, is a painter and has also published a volume of poetry. She also works as a Music Therapist with people with Brain Injury.
