With more than 200,000 listens online, Sleepwalker (at age 26) almost instantly became one of the most successful artists from Bulgaria in his genre. Like proud member of ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors Publishers), Sleepwalker released 3 albums since 2004 - Flower Of Life - 2004, A Tear For Kursk - 2005, Amenti - 2006. The music of Sleepwalker combines in a fascinating way different genres as New Age, Chill-out, Lounge, World and Ambient, mixed with folklore motives from all over the planet, symphonic parts and Soundtrack themes. The conception centre on ancient civilizations, wondered and sacred places, epic antique cities, fascinate tales, lyrics of Arabian, Portuguese, French and Italian, interlaced with Tibetan, African and Native American dialects and Bulgarian chants. For reaching such rich and vary sound picture, Sleepwalker use the combination of new modern computer technologies with multiple instruments as guitars, violin, synthesizers, Native American flutes, African and Indonesian percussions, mandolin, oud, saz and Armenian pipe. Sleepwalker works with different musicians, like each one of them blend and color the music with own style. ALBUM DESCRIPTION The new album of Sleepwalker - "Amenti" approves a private style and incredible sound "Sleepwalker". An ingenious composition elements and inovatory approach create an impressive and rememberable sound picture. A tender blend of low and high acoustic guitar lines with a soaring wordless vocals moving in and out of the background, noble tones of Native American flutes and innovatibe combo of bongos, djembe, doumbek and timbal fits nicely in the New Age, World Ethnic genres. The orchestration goes beyond the traditional conceptions for a musical background and rather reminds of qualitative soundtrack. As the height of perfection the album is mastered by the Grammy award-winning engineer Bob Katz, Digital Domain Studio (digido.com), USA. AWARDS It is no chance that the track Invisible Cloister from this album occupied the #1 place in the World chart of the prestigious website GarageBand.com, earning 5/5 stars over more than 110 reviews.. MUSIC QUOTES written by sound reporters, producers and music labels "Sleepwalker's album has a lot of natural organic impact for electronic music and a cool bass beat!"
