Details: 41 North is a Connecticut shoreline-based band with an eclectic set of original Pop/Rock songs that you just cant get out of your head. In 2003, the five guys of 41 North came together with a common passion for music. In the amount of time since, they have put together a mature sound of their own style of rock. It's neither hard nor soft, but it is tight, at times funky, and always easy to like. The members of 41 North are all currently high school juniors. Their energetic live performance reflects their enthusiastic attitude towards the music that they create. The maturity of their sound extends well beyond their years. The band released their debut album, entitled This is the Time EP, in 2006, and has played enough live shows to build a loyal and growing fan base. The fan base extends as far as the west coast and their mature stage presence, catchy, harmony-filled songs, and constant self-promotion will take them even further. Their music has been recognized by Nashville singer/songwriter Chad Warrix as well as international jazz singer Allan Harris. The band has performed as the opening act for many accomplished musicians including Edwin McCain, Ari Hest (Colombia), Martin Sexton, and Keller Williams. The members of 41 North plan to continue pursuing their musical ambitions. With a mature set of tunes and the common energy they share as a band, they are ready to take their musical endeavors to the next level.
