Christian Celtic folk influenced music with harp and vocals. Peaceful, worshipful, and healing. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Appalachian Folk, FOLK: Celtic Folk Details: Amy Shreve is from Nashville Tennessee and has been touring the USA and Canada for more than 10 years. Her first CD a New Age release distributed by Capitol Records "Peace in the Puzzle" was highly acclaimed by Jazz Is magazine. Amy has been nominated for a Dove award. She has recorded 12 Projects over her career. With a mixture of vocal and instrumental CDs Amys versatility is rivaled by only a few. Playing the harp while singing is a difficult task yet the combination of this unique talent and her well crafted lyrics has left audiences mesmerized. Harp and Willow signifies Amy's first explorations into Irish melody and meter. Many consider the recording appalachian in nature. This is due to the large amount of Irish immigrants who settled there. Along with the Celtic influence the music has at times a medieval ring. Amy Covers Michael Card's "God's Own Fool" which is a fan favorite. Also "Babylon", the Jewish traditional about Israels Exile is haunting. Harp and Willow is the most mellow of all of Amy's vocal recordings. It is peaceful, relaxing, and worshipful. People who are interested in Enya Clannad Twila Paris should consider this download.
