A pinnacle of achievement in songwriting plus the best of Eighties' production values, this lush and upbeat album is now re-released by popular demand. 7 MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, ROCK: Euro-Rock
Details: The phenomenal EP that achieved cult status in Seattle is now available for the first time in digital form. This collection includes the four songs which comprised the original vinyl, plus Leon, winner of Seattles KYYX Local Heroes Contest, and two previously unpublished recordings, the infectious Electricity Walks and the lush Youre So Dreamatic. I have a crush on this record. I mean it-this is serious infatuation. Im skipping meals just to stay in my room to listen to it. I tell everyone I run into all about it. I cant get it out of my head. I think it must be love. Morgan Blackwood and Maggie Laird are two very funny, talented and appealing Seattle musicians who seem to have been hiding in a closet until the release of this EP -Ann Powers, The Rocket It seems that most local bands can come up with one or two good songs per recording project, especially on a debut recording, but the Blackwood-Laird EP is consistent in the professional quality of songwriting, musicianship and production from start to finish, which is why it gets a lot of airtime on KJET. And judging from the requests and positive feedback we get from listeners (many are surprised it is a Seattle band), they agree with my feeling about the record. Its a hit. Jim Keller, KJET Radio People who are interested in Annie Lennox Fleetwood Mac Todd Rundgren should consider this download.
