Pop/Rock/Jazz Blues 5 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: If the Blue Union Trio could be defined by one word, that word would be 'real'. Each song resounds with an ageless story communicating the emotional complexities of love and life, yearning and loss, joy and pain. These remarkable jazz-inflected pop music vignettes are composed by singer and songwriter, Travers Geoffray. Geoffray's tuneful piano stylings and vivid songwriting poignantly explore the human experience with a wisdom far beyond his years. Drummer Sam Shahin attends Levine, where this year he was awarded the status of Performing Artist, the highest designation for a Levine student. The newest member of the band, Chris Gonzalez, 21, attends Maryland's Montgomery College as a music major. Geoffray's wisdom, combined with Shahin's heartfelt drumming and Gonzalez's soulful bass playing, create the always realistic sound of the Blue Union Trio.
