A lyrically based folk rock sound that combines acoustic and electric instrumentation with simple to complex harmonies. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Thirty years ago, Reed Chandler, Rob Siegel and Greg Edwards were serving the interests of the Baha'i Faith in Chile, South America, when their music reached the ears and spurred the interest of a small record company. Produced in three days with well known and respected local musicians in Santiago, the original LP was distributed throughout the country. The rhythms and harmonies were so novel at the time, they were afforded the opportunity to extensively travel the length and breadth of Chile performing in concerts and interviewing with the press and radio. While the songs were nearly all in English, their message of unity, peace and optimism was felt deeply by the hearts of their listeners and Caminando Juntos (La Flauta), in particular, has spread throughout the Spanish speaking world and remains a favorite today.
