A singer/songwriter/keyboardist that has combined the elements of commercial music and alternative music into one. 15 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, POP: Pop/Rock Details: Corey Schneider is a singer/songwriter/keyboardist who grew up in the small central New Jersey town of Bedminster. Since the age of five, Corey Schneider has developed an understanding of music through his years of piano training. His first ventures into songwriting occurred naturally through tweaking the melodies of classical and contemporary songs he had learned. By the time Corey was twelve years old, he had begun to explore the art of writing music. Striving to make every song sound genuine, Corey Schneider puts his heart and soul into creating his own unique sound. He writes his own scores and lyrics, sings his own songs, and plays his original music on his keyboard. As only a sophomore in high school, he released a solo 14 track album titled Eclipse in September of 2005. To help spread his music, he began performing solo acts at coffee shops and open mics throughout northern New Jersey. By early 2007, he had formed a band with younger classmates Matt Setola on guitar and Isaac Roth on drums. Within a few months, he released his second album, Red Light Runner, which finally achieved the developed sound that Corey was looking for.
