SYNOPSIS of SONGS (How Much) I Love You A sweet sing-along song, and a favorite with moms, this is an expression of love that we can sing to others and to ourselves. You can write your own verse lyrics and sing along to the final track of the album, an instrumental version.

Becky Was A Bird The favored track on the album! Kids learn how to have more fun as they start the day, just like Becky, who pretends she is a bird. Pick your feathers (clothing outfit), brush your beak (teeth), and peck (kiss) your mommy on the cheek while you get ready in the morning.

Keep Goin Another fave, this track helps kids remember to relax while they work and play. A frustrated child is setting up his train track, when it breaks. He asks for help, and his Dad suggests that he take a deep breath while he works.

A Little Magic This is a groovy song about using your imagination to improve an unsavory situation. When you dont want to eat your veggies or stand in line, use your magical imagination to find a way to enjoy it.

Im A Helicopter Kids love to move the furniture to the walls and spin around the living room to this fast and furious tune. And dont forget the safety landingslow down so you dont have to crash!

Icy Cold Lemonade This story takes you from your idea of turning something sour into something sweet, all the way through to sharing your lemonade. Its affirming message uses lyrics that allow kids to take pride in what they share with others.

I Paint a Rainbow Denises personal favorite, Rainbow reminds us that we have the power to make a rainbow in our hearts, even when the rainstorm is out of our control. We can all rise above our life situations and feel happy.

Row Your Boat Get on outside and move around. Exercise and play is an essential part of each day. You can make up your own verse to the tune of this old favorite, and motivate yourself to MOVE.

I Love to Share With fellow songwriter, Debi Derryberry, Denise has written a song that helps us remember that we care for others, which helps us share more readily.

Sally OMalleys Lunchbox Like The House That Jack Built, this sequencing story is a fun challenge, with sound effects for each character. It finishes with a message about being gracious, and ending up with something better than what we start with. Good-bye, My Friend This sweet and soothing song helps us with the bittersweet time of saying good-bye. The harmonies and haunting piano figure make for a lulling listen. (How Much) I Love You Ahh, the final track is one that allows you to write your own verses. Follow the example from the first track, and personally express how much you love someone close to you. It can be a work-in-progress, one verse at a time, so dont expect perfection on your first try. Parents, grandparents, caregivers, aunts and uncles will have fun writing with their young loved ones, and then singing along karaoke-style!
