A glimpse of Marquez The Greatest following the example of his mentors, Richard Pryor and George Carlin. The result is a hilarious, fun filled, philosophical "blunt". 18 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: MARQUEZ THE GREATEST was selected as a stage name because it states who he is and what he desires to achieve-GREATNESS. Like all those who have made their life work synonymous with their names, Marquez has a mission. A mission coupled with a deep understanding of the Comedian's purpose. That mission? (which he chose to accept) Was assigned to him, one night after a show, when a man came up to The Greatest and said "I planned on committing suicide, but you made me LAUGH so hard. I realized that everybody's going through something." That's when it became clear that the REAL REASON people come out for entertainment is for a mental break from their "problems" i.e. "LIFE". As a result the once simple goal of "making people laugh" became his mission. To shed the light of Laughter upon those in the darkness of depression and disappointment, is Marquez's commitment. THE COMMITMENT is to EVER BEING THE CLOWN. The "FOOL" to the Royal Court of his rapidly growing fan base. The influences of Muhammad Ali, Richard Pryor, and George Carlin are detectable but his brand of humor is all his own. Now residing in Los Angeles, Marquez can be seen at well-known Comedy Clubs as well as Comedy Showcases across the Country.
