A celebration of the healing power and universal language of music. REVIEWS: QUINCY JONES "I loved every drop. I've been waiting to have an album like this come into my ears. It's so nice to hear music, especially the fusion between African and pop-jazz. Melissa you are one talented lady! Your music is beautiful, simply beautiful. You've got it all." CHAKA KHAN "Deep awesome ethereal funk. I haven't been this excited about being part of an album project for years. The great thing is there's no exploitation in this music" WHOLE LIFE TIMES "Vardey's technique is formidable yet soulful. Her loose and empathic keyboard abilities give her a comfort with her main instrument that few musicians ever achieve" (Whole Life Times) UNITONE RECORDINGS "Awash with joyous African-themed sounds. An aural olive branch possessing all the wonder and splendor of a sublime dream. A stream of consciousness masterwork" NEW PARADIGM DIGEST "A masterful epic journey which takes the listener to exotic yet familiar lands" DAVID FOSTER (Producer) "An incredible achievement - a movie-score for the mind. I'll put you forward as composer if they ever make an Amistat II" BRIAN LEONARD (Concert master/LA Symphony) "The voice of Mother Earth - through this music the world will hear what the earth has to say" AFRICAN ODYSSEY magazine "Exquisite. So close to nature that it brought me right back to my soul, my center.
