Unique entrancing acoustic guitar played with skill and passion - original, melodic and captivating. A must for any lover of guitar music. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Neil Speers is a talented multi-instrumentalist approaching 50, he has a lifetime of musical experience from theatre orchestras, concert bands, rock bands, jazz bands, folk bands and has now returned to his humble beginnings - acoustic guitar playing. This music started out as demo material on Neil's web site to avoid copyright problems - there was so much interest that Neil decided to release the music as a cd - the intention is to create a band to both perform and record this music and other pieces not yet recorded October 2004 has seen the release of the album - 14 pieces all different in character and feel - all played with skill and passion - demonstrating a unique style of enjoyable, relaxing and original acoustic guitar music. Neil works as a performing musician and instrumental music teacher. (Now working on material for second cd - watch this space!). Thank you for viewing this page - hope you have time to listen to the sample tunes and if you can view Neil's web site (see below link) - any feed back regarding this music or web site would be greatly appreciated and valued.
