Really funny comedy blues songs. Rodney Dangerfield meets Muddy Waters. 10 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy, BLUES: Electric Blues Details: Shane Douglas Ta'blooze For a few years now I have been singing a funny little song called Mr. Squirty. Everyone always asks if it is on a CD. Well..... yes it is. I have been doing some stand-up comedy at open mikes for a new challenge. Some of the jokes have made there way in to the Money Makers shows. This inspired me to write some more fun comedy songs. I had a ball doing this CD is was fun to be doing something new and different. What started out as demos became Ta'blooze. I cut it over a six month period in my spare time. I don't mean to offend, just making a joke. If you like clever and not so clever dirty humor I think you will dig Ta'blooze. My favorite? My theme song "I Don't Wanna Quit Drinkin'. Shane Douglas is many things.

Guitarist/Singer/Songwriter/Comedian/all around Entertainer. Shane has been performing in Nashville, Tn for almost 15 years. At 17 he moved to Music City from Martinsburg Wv. Since then he has honed his musical skill and learned to work a crowd like no other. Shane will have you dancing, singing and laughing along as he gets to the core of the audience with his intuition and skill. It has been said, but never proven, that Shane knows every song. Although no one could know every song, Shane does know alot of them. If he doesn't know yours he can get close. How to describe Shane Douglas? He can interact with the crowd and get the party going. Or he can get funky and have you dancing all night long. He can go into a stand-up bit and get you laughing. Then play the dirtiest blues you ever heard. He is one mean guitar slinger and he knows every classic barroom song. He is all that and more. Whether it's 10 people or 10,000 they will have a good time and most likely stay for one more drink then they planned. He has works nearly every night in Music City U.S.A. From the big venue to the small Shane can please the crowd. So why haven't you heard of him? Well Shane is hard to categorize. Shane defies definition. So no-one quite knows what to do with him. But Shane knows what to do. Keep on playing good music, take time to identify with the crowd, and make it a party. Everyone has fun at a Shane Douglas and the Money Makers show.
