Didelot's casual good-natured songs go down like that first sip of cold beer on a hot day. Didelot impresses with his fluid guitar skills and a smooth tenor that occasionally rips into a decent rasp...He's certainly MTV ready...Bringing polished melodies and a compelling voice to the stage, Steve Didelot is a welcome addition to the fraternity of the next generation of singer/ songwriters." -Lauren Horwitch, Music Connection Magazine, March 2005, Los Angeles, CA From the small town surf community of San Clemente, Steve Didelot's heartfelt sound is sure to be a breath of fresh air in today's music industry. Both rock and folk influenced, Didelot's music is driven by thought provoking lyrics, soulful melodies and hooks throughout that keep the ear interested. A strength of his music is that his sound has the ability to bridge the gap between the classic rock generation and today's youth. A unique feature of Steve Didelot's album is that all instruments and vocals were performed and recorded by him alone. This gave Steve the opportunity to create music that has his own style and sound. By creating this album from start to finish, Didelot is making his mark as a true solo artist. Released in the late spring of 2004, this new-comer's album is already getting quite a bit of positive feedback.
