Folk rock/pop singer/songwriter whose lyrics are personal and mesmerizing, delivered with passion. 15 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Her soulful voice, tremendous songs and wonderful playing combine with her beautiful heart to make some of the best music Ive ever heard. To call Susan Clark multifaceted just doesnt do her justice. Thats because, though she IS talented in so many areas, that term doesnt explain just how beautifully she writes, how well she plays piano, guitar and flute, how alluring her voice can be, how quickly audiences connect with her in a live setting or the amazing joy she inspires in her work with Alzheimer and dementia patients. Yes, multifaceted, but also, so much more. Susan was named a finalist in Kerrvilles New Folk Concert Series in 1991, 1993 and 1995. Then in 1998 the Kerrville judges awarded her first place. Among the prizes was the opportunity to perform on Kerrvilles main stage in 1998 before thousands of the countrys biggest folk followers. 2006 found Susan once again included in the Kerrville New Folk Finalists! Take Me Home, Susans 1999 release, lead to numerous awards that once again proved her versatility. Along with being selected to showcase her songs fo the National Folk Alliance, she was also won first place awards from New Mexicos premier music competition (NM Mic Line Awards) for Best Jazz Production, Best Blues Production, Best Adult Contemporary Production and Best Vocal Performance. Covering so many styles, its easy to see why so many of Take Me Homes songs are covered by other New Mexican musicians. A new CD of original compositions "Waitin' for the Wind, has just been released and is available for purchase . Once again this accomplished songwriter, vocalist and musician is proving that sometimes the designation of multifaceted might just not say enough about this womans talents.
