Denis Keldie, one of Canada's foremost keyboardists (2B3 The Toronto Sessions) has released his first CD of funky organ trio jazz in the tradition of Jimmy Smith, Jimmy McGriff and Jack McDuff. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, BLUES: Jazzy Blues Details: Denis Keldie, one of Canada's foremost keyboardist has just released his first self-titled CD. Denis has appeared on over 100 albums as a much in-demand session artist. This CD of all original compositions was co-written with guitarist Bill Murray and features the extraordinary talent of well known drummer Paul DeLong. In the tradition of the great organ trio artists like Jimmy Smith, Jimmy McGriff, Jack McDuff and Groove Holmes, Denis adds his own twist to the genre. His drawbar work and tonal palette is wide and unique. He coaxes totally original sounds from the instrument. Whether it's the soul/funk of Despair Ye Not and Sideways, the cool walking bass lines of Slippery Slope or the N'Orleans flavoured Gator Tales, Denis and the band always have something inspired to say. LISTEN to the Audio clips and you'll see what I mean. PaulDeLong - Best known for his multi-platinum success with rock artist Kim Mitchell, Paul has forged a career which also touches on funk, fusion, jazz and latin, working with such diverse artists as Tom Scott, David Blamires, Brian Hughes, Lawrence Gowan, Carlos Del Junco, Carol Welsman, Bill King, Paul Tovey and Dave Restivo. Paul is one of SABIAN cymbals most popular and effective clinicians. BillMurray - Bill is a veteran of the Toronto music scene. Known for his work with Sweet Blindness in the 1970's and for his contributions to the Lincolns, Bill is at home in many styles. Bill is the co-writer of the compositions on the CD.
