Details: The Warped Wannabeez are three sisters, ages fifteen, eighteen, and twenty-one. All three sisters collaborate to write and perform great songs. Their varied influences create songs with imaginative melodies and lyrics that are unique and edgy. Their songs: Eyes of a Girl and Run Around have been well received by radio and live audiences. Their song Mary Contrary appears on the soundtrack of Green Mountain Falls. The Warped Wannabeez are members of a family of nine kids who are all actors, writers, and musicians. Crystal made her singing debut at the age of two in a band called The Future. Their debut CD led to tours for The McDonald's Corporation, The United Way, and Children's Hospital. The Futures music was also played over Armed Forces. At fourteen Crystal became a solo independent recording artist under her stage name, Crystal Notes. She later formed the Warped Wannabeez with her sisters. She writes/co-writes, records, and co-produces all of her songs and music videos. Crystals videos have aired internationally. She listens to punk, rock, oldies, R&B, Broadway, symphonies, etc. Crystal has written two novels and shes working on a third. Her most popular is a sci-fi thriller entitled "Clone Alone", which shes making into a musical for the stage. Crystal has done film work and she was most recently cast in two Sci-fi TV series. Crystal also does catalog modeling. She has won awards for writing poetry she enjoys playing the guitar every chance she gets. She sings lead in the Warped Wannabeez. Tiffany has been singing since she was very young and she has always dreamt of starting a band. She is the founder of the Warped Wannabeez. The name was inspired after seeing a commercial for Warped Tour. Tiffany writes most of the melodies for the Warped Wannabeez songs. Her biggest musical influence comes from her favorite band The Killers, but she is also very much inspired by her parents, brothers and sisters, she is one of nine kids. Tiffany enjoys catalog modeling and acting. In her spare time Tiffany loves watching reality TV shows and writing songs. Tiffany is the middle sister in the group she is eighteen years old. She plays the guitar and sings lead. April loves singing and playing guitar. She is the youngest member of the Warped Wannabeez at the age of fifteen. April collaborates on melodies and lyrics with her sisters on all of the Warped Wannabeez songs. Aprils favorite artists include Katy Perry and Kill Paradise. April has done catalog modeling and acting. She loves comedies and playing sports. Her favorite sports are volley-ball and soccer. April sings lead and plays guitar in the group.
